

2015 Outer Banks Bride Magazine: Island Romance

What happens when Outer Banks Wedding Association members Bordeaux Events and Basnight Photography come together? You get an impeccably styled, beautifully captured wedding. Hold on to your seats, because Laurie and Aaron's Carova wedding is absolute perfection; and we were so happy to feature them in this year's Outer Banks Bride Magazine. After getting engaged on the Outer Banks, choosing to have their big day on the island was a no brainer. With relatives coming from California and New York, they designed a day that was a family affair filled with island charm.

Laurie and Aaron's Story:

Wedding Date: May 9, 2013

Color Palette: White, Champagne, and Caribbean Blue

How He Asked: Aaron proposed in May of 2011 while they were vacationing with friends on the Outer Banks. It was their first trip on the island! What Laurie thought was a casual walk along beach, turned into a life changing moment when Aaron dropped on one knee.

Favorite Wedding Memories: Having 40+ of their closed family and friends stay with them for the entire week of their wedding! Also, they still cherish the toasts by the Best Man and Matron of honor, who they both have known for over 10 years. They each gave heartfelt and humorous renditions of their years together leading up to the big day.

Advice For Future Couples Tying The Knot: "Weddings are a celebration of love; not a creator of it. The effort and memories are only worthwhile if the marriage is. Planning for the most extravagant or most simple of weddings starts with ensuring your family and friends will be part of it."
