Congratulations to Beth LaMountain of the Roy Murray Music Studio for being a performing cellist in the Trans-Siberian Orchestra for the upcoming performance of "The Lost Christmas Eve" on November 28, 2012 at the Richmond Coliseum. Beth has been performing weddings on the Outer Banks for over 10 years. She performs from Carova to Hatteras and is booked exclusively by the Roy Murray Music Studio. She is often paired by Roy with other instrumentalists of equal caliber and performance credits. The Roy Murray Music Studio has been a long time standing and charter member of the Outer Banks Wedding Association since its inception. Roy, Beth, Stacey, Joe and all the other members of the staff enjoy playing weddings – it's the ceremonies and cocktail hours that they do - just as much as they love playing sold out arenas!
